LETTER OF MOTIVATION

Application for Chief Revenue Officer Position at Flipper Devices Inc.

Dear Hiring Committee,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Chief Commercial Officer / Chief Revenue Officer position. With extensive experience spanning technology, consumer electronics, startups, consulting, sales leadership, revenue generation, go-to-market strategy, product commercialization, market expansion, and channel development, I am confident in my ability to contribute to Flipper Devices' commercial growth and revenue objectives.

Introduction

I am a commercial growth and revenue executive with a long-standing background in technology and consumer electronics. Throughout my career, I have worked directly with founders, executive leadership teams, distributors, retailers, enterprise buyers, and strategic partners to develop revenue opportunities, expand markets, strengthen distribution, and commercialize technology products. My experience includes leading commercial growth strategies, developing national go-to-market plans, building sales teams, expanding distribution channels, developing strategic customer relationships, and supporting emerging companies through market development and revenue-growth initiatives. These experiences have prepared me to contribute a hands-on and commercially focused leadership approach to Flipper Devices.

Background

My career has focused on technology, consumer electronics, commercial strategy, sales leadership, and business development. Through Jess Associates, I have advised more than 20 startup and emerging companies on revenue growth, go-to-market strategy, product commercialization, market expansion, and channel development, contributing to approximately $100M–$150M in cumulative revenue growth across client engagements.

My experience also includes building national sales teams, expanding distribution, developing strategic partnerships, and supporting the commercialization of technology products across retail, e-commerce, B2B, enterprise, and distributor channels.

Professional Experience

As Chief Revenue Officer at iPowerUp New Jersey, I lead commercial growth, revenue strategy, go-to-market planning, market development, and channel expansion across emerging technology markets.

As Founder and Lead Consultant at Jess Associates, I advised more than 20 startup and emerging companies on revenue growth, commercialization, market expansion, and sales strategy, contributing to approximately $100M–$150M in cumulative revenue growth.

Earlier roles with Fujitsu America, Star Micronics, and Toshiba-America ISD strengthened my expertise in technology sales, distribution, enterprise accounts, product launches, and regional market expansion, generating significant revenue growth across each organization.

Skills and Qualifications

I bring a strong combination of commercial leadership, technology-market experience, and revenue-growth capabilities, including:

- Revenue Growth Strategy
- Commercial Strategy

- Go-to-Market Strategy
- Sales Leadership
- Business Development
- Market Expansion
- Product Commercialization
- Channel Development
- Distribution Strategy
- Strategic Partnerships
- Customer Acquisition
- Enterprise Sales
- Strategic Account Management
- Revenue Generation
- Sales Strategy & Execution
- Pipeline Management
- Negotiation & Strategic Influence
- Organizational Growth

My ability to work directly with founders, senior executives, customers, distributors, retailers, and strategic partners allows me to connect commercial strategy with practical sales execution and market development.

Fit for Flipper Devices

I am particularly interested in Flipper Devices because of the strong alignment between the company's technology and consumer electronics focus and my extensive background in technology products, consumer electronics, sales leadership, product commercialization, distribution, and market expansion.

Throughout my career, I have supported technology products from launch strategy through market development, channel expansion, customer acquisition, and broader commercial adoption. My experience developing national sales strategies, expanding distribution, building sales organizations, and establishing relationships across retail, e-commerce, B2B, enterprise, and distributor channels provides a strong foundation for contributing to Flipper Devices' revenue and market-growth objectives.

I am confident that my hands-on commercial leadership approach, experience working with emerging companies, and background in technology and consumer electronics can allow me to contribute meaningfully to Flipper Devices continued commercial development and expansion.

Conclusion

In conclusion, I am highly motivated to pursue the Chief Revenue Officer opportunity at Flipper Devices Inc. My extensive experience in revenue generation, sales leadership, go-to-market strategy, product commercialization, channel development, strategic partnerships, and market expansion positions me to contribute to the company's commercial objectives.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to bring my experience in technology, consumer electronics, commercial growth, and revenue strategy to Flipper Devices and contribute to its continued market development and growth.

Sincerely,

Jeffery Sobel
